

Alpha Charter Guild installs new officers

Alpha Charter Guild to Antelope Valley Hospital Medical Center installed new officers at an afternoon reception held at the Lancaster home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Elton.

Lancaster City Councilman Jack Murphy served as emcee for the event, and according to his wishes, the husbands administered the oaths of office to their wives during the ceremony.

Installed to lead the group through the coming year were Vicki Jo Park, president; Debi Ambill, first vice president and presentation ball chairwoman; Roberta Bloom, second vice president and debutante chairwoman; June Bracker, third vice president and membership chairwoman; Cathy Swords, recording secretary; Harriet Spann, corresponding secretary; and Pat Russell, treasurer.

Committee chairmanships have also been announced by president Park. Since the main fund-raising project of the Guild is the debutante program, which begins in the spring with the introduction of the young women and concludes in the fall with the presentation ball, those named to committees on the debutante program were the first to be announced. They include two assistant debutante chairwomen: Erma Fulton and Evalyn Stewart.

Others providing debutante services will include: Eilene Maluccio, informal coffee; Kimberly Galias and Nonda Galias, gowns and etiquette; Barbara Ryckebosch, debutante-parent liaison; Sharlene Haddad, presentation tea; Frances Evenson, debutante-parent luncheon and hospital tour; Elaine Friend, debutante fund-raising project; Sandy Carbo, post debutantes; and Sue Visco, parent-members cocktail party.

Named to the presentation ball committees were Suzanne Benefield, assistant ball chairwoman; Linda Orro, decorations; Esther Brewer, escorts; Carolee Buker, reservations and seating; Debbie White, ball program book; and Joyce Pearson, presentation ceremony.

Other committees whose chairmanships have been announced include: casino night, Mary Ann Bramlett, chairwoman, with Linda Orro assisting; publicity, Sandy Carbo; telephone, Mary Knapp, Haydee Nottoli and Lauri Hickert; gift foundation liaison, Frances Evenson; inventory, Betty Etherton; historian, Jeanette Heimberger; bylaws, Joan Elton; special events, Trudy Marvin and Eilene Maluccio; and newsletter, Harriet Spann.

NEW OFFICERS who will lead the Alpha Charter Guild to Antelope Valley Hospital Medical Center in the coming year include, from left, Roberta Bloom, second vice president and debutante chairwoman; Vicki Jo Park, president; and Debi Ambill, first vice president and presentation ball chairwoman.
